

I. Basic SELECT

1. Write a query to display the names (first_name, last_name) using alias name "First Name", "Last Name" from the employees.
2. Write a query to get unique department ID from employee table.
3. Write a query to get all employee details (from employee table) who are hired in 2022.
4. Write a query to get the names (first_name, last_name), salary, PF of the employees (PF is calculated as 15% of salary).
5. Write a query to get the names (first_name, last_name), salary, PF of the employees if PF is greater than 10000.
6. Write a query to get the list of employees and full information of their department
7. Write a query to calculate $171 * 214 + 625$.
8. Write a query to get the names (for example Ellen Abel, Sundar Ande etc.) of all the employees from employees table.
9. Write a query to get first name from employees table after removing white spaces from both side.
10. Write a query to select first 10 records from a table.
11. Write a query to get monthly salary (round 2 decimal places) of each employee
12. Note : Assume the salary field provides the 'annual salary' information.
13. Write a query to get monthly salary (round 2 decimal places) of each employee if monthly salary is smaller than 5000

II. Join

1. Write a query to find the addresses (location_id, street_address, city, state_province, country_name) of all the departments.
2. Write a query to find the name (first_name, last_name), department ID and department name of all the employees.
3. Write a query to find the name (first_name, last_name), job_title, department ID and department name of the employees who work in London.
4. Write a query to find the employee ID, name (last_name) along with their manager (manager_id, last_name).
5. Write a query to find the name (first_name, last_name) and hire date of the employees who were hired after 'Jones'.
6. Write a query to find the employee ID, job title, number of days between ending date and starting date for all jobs in the department having ID 90.
7. Write a query to display the department name, manager name, and city.
8. Write a query to display job title, employee (ID, name), and the difference between the salary of the employee and minimum salary for the job.
9. Write a query to display the job history that was done by any employee who is currently drawing more than 10000 of salary.

III. Aggregate & Group by

1. Write a query to get the number of jobs available in the employees table.
2. Write a query to get the total salaries payable to employees in each department.
3. Write a query to get the minimum salary for each job
4. Write a query to get the maximum salary of an employee working as a Programmer (job title)
5. Write a query to get the average salary and number of employees working the department 90 (department id).
6. Write a query to get the highest, lowest, sum, and average salary of all employees.
7. Write a query to get the difference between the highest and lowest salaries.
8. Write a query to find the manager ID and the salary of the lowest-paid employee for that manager.
9. Write a query to get the average salary for each job ID excluding programmer.
10. Write a query to get the job ID and maximum salary of the employees where maximum salary is greater than or equal to $4000.
11. Write a query to get the average salary for all departments employing more than 10 employees.