

1. Write a query to get every phone number in the employees table, within the phone number the substring '124' will be replaced by '999'.
2. Write a query to append '@example.com' to the email field.
3. Write a query to get the employee id, name (first name + last name) and hire month.
4. Write a query to get the employee id, email id (discard the last three characters).
5. Write a query to find all employees where first names are in the upper case.
6. Write a query to extract the last 4 characters of phone numbers.
7. Write a query to get the last word of the street address.
8. Write a query to get the locations that have minimum street address length.
9. Write a query to display the first word from those job titles which contain more than one word.
10. Write a query to display the length of first name for employees where the last name contains character 'c' after 2nd position.
11. Write a query that displays the first name and the length of the first name for all employees whose name starts with the letters 'A', 'J' or 'M'. Sort the results by the employees' first names.
12. Write a query to display the first name and salary for all employees. Format the salary to be 10 characters long, left-padded with the $ symbol. Label the column SALARY.
13. Write a query to display the first eight characters of the employees' first names and indicate the amounts of their salaries with '$' sign. Each '$' sign signifies a thousand dollars. Sort the data in descending order of salary.